

Why a business website?

69% of consumers use Google Search to find information about local businesses ( Uberall 2021)

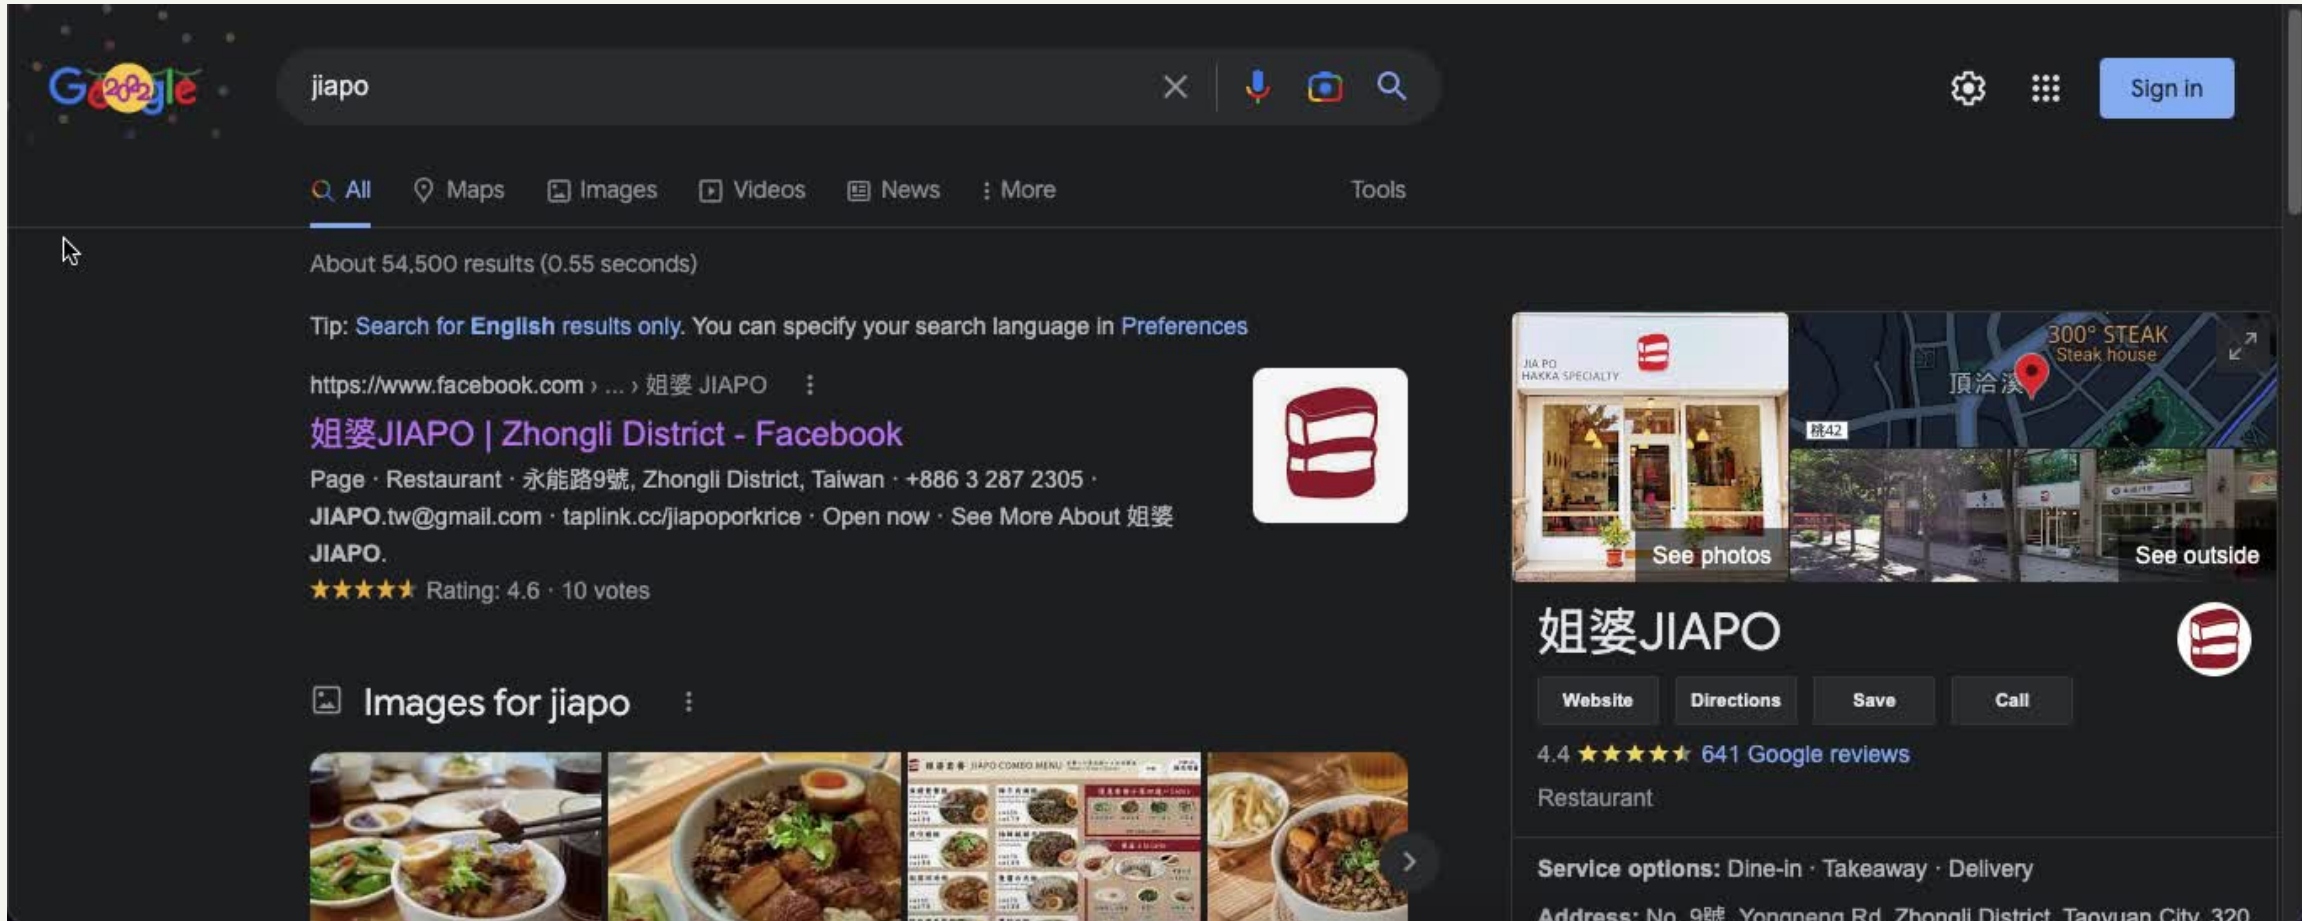

A professional website is an excellent way to make a positive first impression on potential customers

Key information can be organised in a user-friendly and efficient way to help customers make a decision about their next meal

Jiapo is more visible for users searching for restaurants in Taoyuan

Why is SEO Important?

This is the view many potential customers have when they search "jiapo"

Another Example

Being redirected to a Line login screen could be quite confusing for customers

Vivian華 - Google Maps

The overall environment is clean and comfortable, and the meals are exquisite and delicious~

CHU - Google Maps

The signature Lei Cha milk has a very strong and mellow fragrance, and you can tell it is the real thing when you drink it. 😊
